"A PASSION FOR EXCELLENCE"

Having managed hundreds of agents during my career, I don't know if there is another top agent who cares more about getting it right than Lisa Mansfield. She has a motto, "A Passion for Excellence" and that is clear in everything she does.

Lisa cares deeply about her clients, always attentive to their needs, whether she has worked with them for 25 years or met them just recently, they feel secure by her warm, engaging personality and market knowledge. I have watched Lisa at an open house bond instantly with new clients and guide them with grace in making important life decisions. It is clear, she has a relentless desire for her clients to achieve their goals.

While some know her as the Queen of the Glen, because she has sold more homes in Brentwood Glen than any other agent, Lisa's success stretches beyond her favorite neighborhood. Lisa is consistently a top agent for number of homes sold in all of Brentwood. It's not magic; it takes hard work, commitment and a passion for excellence. I have been proud to work with Lisa for the last seven years and look forward to her continued success this year and beyond.
